Memorial Hall Library Opens New Roof Deck
We invite you to spend some time in our beautiful, newly renovated outdoor space off the Teen Room. Thanks to the Town, Trustees, and Friends, the community has a special new place to gather, read and work, all while enjoying the outdoors. The deck will be open during library hours as long as the weather permits.

Managing the Ecology of Attention
An Evening with Adam J. Cox, PhD
Wednesday, October 19 at 7pm
Psychologist and author, Dr. Adam Cox will discuss how schools and families can integrate the elements of an ecology of attention into a positive, effective approach to coaching young learners. He’ll address executive functions and how to navigate various hurdles. His book will be available for purchase. RSVP at www.mhl.org/eventcalendar. Sponsored by the Friends of MHL and Parent-to-Parent Andover MA.

An Evening with Author Ted Reinstein
Thursday, November 3 at 7pm
Chronicle’s award-winning reporter returns to share his latest book. From the colonial era, through early aviation (CT claims the Wright Brothers are wrong), to Red Sox-Yankees and present-day food fights, Ted Reinstein tells us who’s really “Wicked Pissed” in New England, and why. RSVP at www.mhl.org/eventcalendar. Copies of his book will be available for purchase. Sponsored by the Friends of MHL.

Friends’ Fall Concerts & Genealogy Events

Lyle Brewer: Solo Guitar
Sunday, October 16 at 2:30pm
Andover native, Lyle Brewer, returns home to share his unique style of guitar playing and original compositions. His album, Juno, made the list of Best Local Albums of 2015 compiled by the Boston Globe. He studied at New England Conservatory and teaches guitar at the Berklee College of Music.

John & Chris Boehmer: Lyrical Folk Music
Sunday, October 30 at 2:30pm
Andover-based performers, John and Chris Boehmer, write and play contemporary acoustic folk music. John's exquisite, finger style guitar and vocals combine with Chris' rich alto to give their harmonies a quality reminiscent of English folk duo, Richard and Linda Thompson. They'll play songs from their latest CD, The Half-Known World.

David Polansky: Music Through the Decades
Sunday, November 13 at 2:30pm
An accomplished musician, composer, and children’s performer, David Polansky will travel through history and showcase the popular American music from 1895 through 1960. He’ll bring alive the songs of George M. Cohan, Fats Waller, Irving Berlin, George Gershwin, Hoagy Carmichael and many others.

Chipping Away at Irish Brick Walls
Tuesday, November 15th at 7pm in Memorial Hall
Judy Lucey, an Archivist at the New England Historic Genealogical Society, will help those who are stuck in their Irish research. Can't find where in Ireland your ancestor is from? Have a place but can't find records? Ms. Lucey will share strategies and resources to help you chip away at your brick wall. RSVP at www.mhl.org/eventcalendar or call 978-623-8401, x31. Sponsored by the Friends of MHL.

You Have Your DNA Matches - Now What? Part 2
Tuesday, October 18 at 7pm
Dr. Sandy Murray will continue to discuss DNA-testing companies and “ethnicity/admixture” results, including match lists and the analytical tools available at each company. She will cover chromosome browsers and matrix tools, and how to transfer results to the free site, GEDmatch, to compare results from different companies. RSVP online or call 978-623-8401, x31. Sponsored by the Friends of MHL.
